Reminiscence boxes

Entertainment & leisure

A collection of tactile entertainment and leisure items for reminiscence work with patients.

Includes books, records, toys and more.

Available for loan from Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust staff library.

Domestic life in the home

A collection of tactile household objects for reminiscence work with patients.

Includes cookware, glassware, a cookery book and more.

Available for loan from Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust staff library.

Miners memories

A collection of mining artefacts kindly donated by the National Coal Mining Museum.

Includes miner’s helmet, pit head bath soap, miner’s lamp and more.

Available for loan from Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust staff library.

For more information:

Visit the library:

Contact the library:

Email: library.ggh@midyorks.nhs.uk
Phone: 01924 543899 (X53899)
Website: midyorks.nhs.uk/library

View the full library catalogue:

www.midyorks.nhslibrariest.com
Books for Reminiscence therapy

Pictures to Share books are designed to be accessible and entertaining for anyone with mid to later stage dementia. The books aim to prompt memories and discussion between those with dementia and their family, friends and carers.

A Sporting Life in Pictures by Bate, H
Celebrates a series of popular sports from football, to pigeon racing to ice dancing. This book aims to provide a talking point & jog memories of the highs and lows of sporting life.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

A World of Work in Pictures by Bate, H
This book explores the lives of working people through a series of images and short texts.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Childhood Days in Pictures by Bate, H
Contains a series of pictures and short texts to give a real feel of what it was like to be a child, and the things that were part of childhood from daisy chains to playground games. From images of school to coming back from a day at the seaside.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Family Life in Pictures by Bate, H
Contains a series of pictures and short texts which aim to give a real feel of what it means to be part of a family, whether big or small. From getting married and having children, to growing up with siblings and grandparents; to bedtime stories and children's TV.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

A Funny Old World in Pictures (2nd ed) by Bate, H
Contains a series of curious, surreal and comic pictures and short texts, which aim to raise smiles and laughter.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

In the Garden in Pictures by Bate, H
This book provides a taste of life in the garden from growing vegetables to playing in the snow. It brings the beauty of nature indoors to be enjoyed all year round.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Pets in Pictures by Bate, H
This book shows the special relationships between people and their pets. Perfect for the animal lover.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Shopping in Pictures by Bate, H
Shopping in pictures is like a walk down the high street or a visit to the market. Whether it's window shopping, buying a new car, a new puppy or a new dress; or perhaps seeing life from the other side of the counter.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Travelling in Pictures by Bate, H
Contains a series of familiar songs, saying and photographs to take the reader on a fascinating journey to relive past adventures whether travelling by foot, boat, plane, train, car or even camel.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT

Beside the Seaside in Pictures by Bate, H
This book celebrates our British coastline in words and pictures. Colourful paintings and archive photographs aim to provide a talking point & jog memories of happy holidays spent at seaside resorts or thoughts of great coastal landscapes and the people and animals who live and work along our shores.
Shelved at WM 224 BAT